HAS NOTHING TO SAY.

Former Attorney General Bonaparte on The Senate Order.

Baltimore, June 22.—Chas. J. Bonaparte, former attorney general of the U. S., last night refused to say anything regarding the statement from Washington that Attorney General Wickham has been ordered to send to the Senate all the acts in possession of the department of justice relating to the prosecution of Dr. E. R. Perrine, of Williams, Ariz., on the charge of conspiracy to defraud the government in timber land cases and was asked for a statement relative to the matter.

Washington, June 22.—Attorney General Wickham, by an order adopted by the Senate committee on judiciary yesterday, is commanded to send to the Senate all of the facts in the possession of the department of justice relating to the prosecution of Dr. E. R. Perrine, of Williams, Ariz., on the charge of conspiracy to defraud the government in timber land cases and was asked for a statement relative to the matter.

The chief criticism of District Attorney Devlin is that he has declined to press the case against Perrine although the report from the department of justice by W. R. Harr, formerly a special attorney in land cases, now an assistant to the attorney general, declares that such action should be taken.

It was yesterday brought out at the session of the sub-committee which is investigating the Devlin nomination that the Harr report declared the conviction of Perrine was procured by methods which could not be approved by the department of justice. Mr. Harr gave the details of the indictment of Perrine which he attributed to a statement made by W. J. Burns, a United States secret service operative, who was loaned to Francis J. Heney in gathering evidence in lumber frauds.

This statement, which was made to the grand jury to the effect that he (Burns) had just come from Oyster Bay and knew that President Roosevelt desired to have Perrine indicted.

At a session lasting more than three hours yesterday the sub-committee, composed of Senators Miles, Borah and Overman discussed the Harr report. Senator Borah criticized the action of former Attorney General Bonaparte in sending the information and declared to his colleagues that it was evident that Mr. Bonaparte did not want to proceed on the line recommended by Mr. Harr, which called for the dismissal of proceedings against Perrine and the prosecution of Snell on a charge of perjury. Snell, a former employee of Perrine, testified against him, who, he said, indicated that the reason for Mr. Bonaparte's failure to act should be given to the committee and that the subject was one which should receive the attention of the full committee on judiciary.

CHINESE SUSPECT
IS NOT THE ONE WANTEDHe Maintained a Fairly Strong Alibi and Has Been Eliminated From Sidel Case.

New York, June 22.—After a bit of police flurvy yesterday, an hour or two of unvaried reports and telephoning between cities, the murder of Elsie Sigel, daughter of Paul Sigel of this city, and granddaughter of Major-General Franz Sigel of Civil War fame, resolved itself into an unsolved case again.

Chung Sin, who formerly occupied a room adjoining that where the girl's body was found, is held by the police at the little city of Amsterdam, N. Y., not far from Schenectady, but what has been learned from him has served to clear up the case little if any. At Schenectady the Chinaman arrested yesterday at first thought to be Leon Ling or William L. Leon, who is sought as the girl's murderer, has according to all indications pretty well established that he is an unoffending celestial who formerly worked in a restaurant in New York and whose arrest was brought about through a strikingly unfortunate resemblance to Leon Ling.

The disappearance of Chung Sin about the time the murder was discovered here made the police eager for his apprehension which was considered second in importance to that of Leon, but the interview with him at Amsterdam yesterday seems to have brought out nothing of value to the authorities. He maintains that he rarely associated with Leon and while acquainted with Elsie Sigel knows nothing of the murder. Thus with his arrest of no great importance, the case aside from developments in New York yesterday, is about where it was when Elsie Sigel's body was found crumpled in the trunk in a room over the Eight avenue chop suey restaurant on Friday night.

Sun Leong Surrenders.

While the authorities up-state were putting the two Chinamen through an inquiry, Sun Leong, keeper of the restaurant above which the body was found, was being questioned at police headquarters here, Sun Leong disappeared on the night the body was found, but quietly and calmly surrendered himself early yesterday. He is being detained as a material witness but his voluntary surrender is taken to mean that he is not implicated in any way in the crime.

Early in the afternoon the New York police had been in communication with Schenectady and even before the final decision was reached there last night the Chinaman held by the police had come to the conclusion that he was not Leon Ling, Detective Forbes, who hurried to Amsterdam, however, telegraphed to headquarters last night that there was no doubt about the identity of Chung Sin, generally referred to as Leon Ling's associate.

In the midst of all the police activity the body of Elsie Sigel was quietly buried yesterday afternoon in Woodlawn cemetery. As the father had announced last night that he wished to avoid any more publicity, the coffin containing the mutilated form was taken directly from the morgue to the burying ground in a plain undertaking wagon.

The ceremony at the grave was strictly private and was attended only by her father, two brothers, Reginald and Theodore, and by her uncle, Franz Sigel. Mrs. Sigel, it will be recalled, broke down yesterday when she learned of her daughter's death and is now in a sanitarium in Connecticut.

From all over the country come reports of the arrests of the man wanted. The police consider the most important development so far is the arrest of Chung Sin, roommate and chum of Leon Ling. Chung admitted to-day having a wife in Canton. He said that he had visited the Sigel home, but had not been there for a long time.

CHINESE JOINT RAIDED.

Only a Few Relatives Were in Attendance
Last Evening.

New York, June 22.—From the undertaking rooms to which the body was taken from the morgue, the funeral of Elsie Sigel, the murdered girl, was held last night. Only the father, two brothers and a few near relatives attended. The mother is still confined in a sanitarium in Connecticut.

From all over the country come reports of the arrests of the man wanted. The police consider the most important development so far is the arrest of Chung Sin, roommate and chum of Leon Ling. Chung admitted to-day having a wife in Canton. He said that he had visited the Sigel home, but had not been there for a long time.

NOT THE MAN WANTED.

Suspect in Sigel Murder Case Was Released Today.

Schenectady, N. Y., June 22.—Reginald Sigel, brother of Elsie Sigel, the murdered girl, arrived today and saw Chu Hop, the Chinaman who was arrested yesterday opposite to Leon Ling. He immediately declared that the man was not Ling, and the suspect was released.

MAN STABBED
TO DEATHBy Fellow Countryman Who Was Jealous of Him

TRIED TO KILL WOMAN

Murder Took Place in Lumber Camp in the Town of Reading Yesterday Afternoon—Assault Is in Jail at Woodstock.

Woodstock, June 22.—As the result of jealous rage, Francesco Jemellaro, aged 31 years, stabbed and killed a fellow countryman, Castellini Ceppino, the boss of a lumber camp near Plymouth Kingdom, in the town of Reading, yesterday afternoon. Jemellaro is said to have attempted to kill Luisa Thirale, the woman in the case, but was prevented from the second crime by the intervention of Vincenzo Miratoto, who is held as a witness.

Both the men were said to have been in love with Luisa Thirale, all three having come from the same town, near Messina, Italy. Ceppino has been living with the woman and the couple is said to have been sought by the jealous rival for a long time. Jemellaro came from the United States three years ago from Italy but he had been in Vermont only a short time, having engaged work with a pulp company which is operating near Plymouth Kingdom.

The assault on Ceppino took place at four o'clock yesterday, the assailant wielding a wicked-looking knife and having a revolver in his possession, which he did not use. Ceppino died within a few minutes. Jemellaro made an attempt to kill the woman, but Vincenzo Miratoto, who had been an eye witness to the struggle, stopped him after a hard struggle.

When the officers were called to the lumber camp where the murder took place, they found that the other Italian had bound Jemellaro to a stump of a tree. The officers took the prisoner in charge and brought him to the county jail in this place. Jemellaro tried to kill himself by using a stone, but was prevented by the officers. Miratoto, who also held as a witness for the trial.

The knife with which Ceppino was killed was seven inches long, dull, and looks as if it had been made out of an old file. The officers took away a revolver from Jemellaro. Jemellaro had recently taken out his first naturalization papers. He came to Vermont with a gang of Italians who had been brought into the state for stripping pulp-wood. Ceppino, the dead man, was boss of the gang.

It is the purpose of the prosecuting attorney to have Jemellaro bound over to county court and have a special session of the grand jury, so that the prisoner can be tried during the present term of court.

TWO AUTOMOBILES DEMOLISHED.

The driver of one car, which was said to have been going at racing speed, was put under arrest on five charges of assault by Chief of Police Bowden of Burlington.

Laffin was returning to this city from Warren when the collision occurred. Mr. Smith was bound sound, driving his car along the right hand side of the highway. When he was nearly opposite the home of Chief of Police Bowden Smith sounded his horn to warn Laffin, who was then on the left-hand side of the road, and speeding toward the Smith machine.

Laffin took the right-hand side, then suddenly shot back again, crashing into the Smith car. Mr. Smith's father was taken from the road unconscious, with a serious scalp wound.

Thomas Burke Accused of Assault at Nashua.

Nashua, N. H., June 22.—Joseph Laporte, a shoe worker, was stabbed and seriously hurt at the Junction last night and Thomas Burke, a Providence barber, is charged with doing the stabbing. Burke was arrested by Patrolman Frank B. Fletcher after an exciting chase through the railroad yards and around cars and engines in the dark.

About 1 o'clock Patrolman Fletcher encountered Burke and Laporte near the Junction street railroad crossing at the Junction. They were arguing and the officer separated them. Burke disappeared and later Laporte started toward his home on Warren street. A few minutes later the patrolman heard a cry that "a man has been stabbed." Ordering the victim taken to a crossing tender's chanty, he started in the direction of the railroad station and captured Burke after a chase.

Scene of the Blaze and H. A. Dowling, Cigar Manufacturer, Was the Chief Loser.

St. Albans, June 22.—Fire which broke out at three o'clock this morning in the old Seymour building on Lake street resulted in a loss of $2,350 and was one of the hardest fires which the department has had to cope with for some time. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

The fire is supposed to have started in a box of sawdust which was used as a cuspidor in the bowling alley of George J. Barrette on the first floor of the building. It is thought that someone threw a lighted cigar or cigarette into the box and that the fire considered until the flames were communicated to the building. The flames had made so much progress by the time they were discovered that the firemen had a long tussle.

The Seymour building is owned by John E. Butler and his loss is placed at $900, which is covered by insurance. George J. Barrette's loss is estimated at only $50, with no insurance. The heaviest loss was to the cigar manufacturing plant of H. A. Dowling on the second floor of the structure. His loss is $2,000, partially covered by insurance.

CONTESTING TITLE
TO VALUABLE LANDCase in Caledonia County Court Goes Back to 1781, When Hardwick Got
Its Charter—Grammar School
Is the Plaintiff.

St. Johnsbury, June 22.—On the re-opening of Caledonia county court yesterday afternoon the case of the Caledonia County Grammar School of Peacham vs. George T. Howard of Craftsbury and S. Blanche Kent of Hardwick was taken up. This is an action of ejectment to recover possession of a lot of land in Hardwick. The grammar school claims the title to the land by reason of several acts of the legislature.

The first of these acts was passed by the legislature in 1781, it being the charter of the town of Hardwick, in which grants were made to 67 original proprietors and to five public rights. The rights are as follows: for the use of a seminary or college, to support a minister, to advance social worship, to the use of English schools, and to the use of a county grammar school.

A second act was the charter to the Caledonia County Grammar School, passed in 1799. By reason of this the grammar school claims the right of the public right reserved in the charter to the town of Hardwick to a county grammar school.

In 1906, H. H. Powers and H. S. Peck, as executors of the will of Alden C. Judson of Hardwick, decided the land of Mr. Howland and he, in turn, decided part of it to Mrs. Kent and others. It is valuable timber land, and the parties who claim possession of it have cut off $7,000 worth of lumber. There are 80 acres all told, on Sugar mountain in Hardwick.

Attorneys Elisha May, B. E. Ballard and H. B. Howe represent the plaintiff and H. H. Powers, Dunnett & Slack and W. A. Dutton represent the defendants.
